

URSULINE VS. CHANEY:
 Here's the biggest game to come should win. This went on and on so I decided to flip a coin. Guess what happened?? The coin settled on the table on its edge. So I sat around the waited to see if it would flop over to one side along in years. All the marbles are on the table. Both clubs are ready. There won't be any open space in Rayen Stadium and even ole PICKUM is excited. I've been deliberating on the outcome since Ursuline beat Wilson to set up the skirmish. Dick Angle is a rough hombre. So is Dave Brungard. Both lines are sound and ready. Last Monday I liked Ursuline. Then I changed my mind Tuesday and figured Chaney or the other. It's still on its edge. So you pick 'um. I can't. See you at Rayen Stadium—if you're lucky to get a ticket.

Irish Defensive Corps Tests Chaney Back

Ursuline plans to send this group into action when Chaney takes over the ball tonight in the Big City Series clash at Rayen Stadium. Defensive men include, left to right; FIRST ROW: Gene Pascarella, Rich Rovnak and Joe Anzelmo. BACK ROW: Bill Angle, Bill Dorris and Mike Tomaskovich.
 (SVN Photo by Lloyd Jones)

15,000 May See Chaney Eleven